TENNESSEE GENERAL ASSEMBLY FISCAL REVIEW COMMITTEE

FISCAL MEMORANDUM

HB 1171 – SB 1038

February 28, 2012

SUMMARY OF AMENDMENTS (013084, 012921): Deletes all language after the enacting clause. Authorizes any municipality, which has a tourism development zone located within its jurisdiction which has not authorized the sale of alcoholic beverages, to conduct a referendum by placing questions on the ballots of the November 2012 general elections. All costs associated with the referendum shall be paid by such municipalities. Amendment 13084 authorizes the City of Orlinda, located in Robertson County, to conduct a referendum in accordance with the regular November 2012 general elections, to allow liquor-by-the-drink within its municipal boundaries.

FISCAL IMPACT OF ORIGINAL BILL:

NOT SIGNIFICANT

FISCAL IMPACT OF BILL WITH PROPOSED AMENDMENTS:

Unchanged from the original fiscal note.

Assumption applied to amendments:

 According to the Department of State, Division of Elections, there will be no increase in local costs for such municipalities to add questions regarding the adoption of liquor-bythe-drink to the regular November 2012 ballots.
